The RTA Next website provides content related to the development of a new 20-year Regional Transportation Authority plan and is a product of the RTA.

The Regional Transportation Authority is an independent taxing district within Pima County, and the RTA delivers multimodal transportation projects that improve our region's connectivity, accessibility, safety and environment. In 2006, Pima County voters approved the current 20-year RTA plan and half-cent sales tax to fund it. To date, the RTA has invested more than $1.6 billion generated by the countywide tax to improve our quality of life and support the region's economic vitality. Learn more at RTAmobility.com.
